HAVE YOU NOTICED THE LAMPS

IN OUR WINDOW?

You may think they are all Rochester's, but the most of them are not. They are Plume & Atwoods' lamps with the BELGIUM BURNER. You will notice that the stands are made of metal and that all are of artistic design, which gives the purchaser a lamp of durability, and beauty. But the greatest point about these lamps is the burner, which has a much smaller wick, burning 40 per cent less oil and at the same time giving 20 per cent stronger light than other lamps. This means the saving of the price of a lamp in a season in the burning of oil. We lack space here to tell you all about these lamps and so invite you to call and look the line over and listen to the story of the Belgium burner.

NEWS OF THE TOWN

A MASQUERADE.—The Twentieth Century club will give a masquerade ball next Saturday night at Padget hall.

UNION SERVICES.—The Methodist and Presbyterian churches will hold union services on Thanksgiving day. The Rev. Mr. Cowan, of the Methodist church, will deliver the sermon.

BAPTIST SERVICES.—The ordinance of baptism was administered at the Baptist church last evening. In the morning, the music included a duet by Mrs. Tharaldson and Mrs. Thompson. One of the floral decorations was a beautiful Maltese cross.

NEW LAUNDRY.—Gen. C. F. Almsworth, Wm. Maull and J. J. Coleberg are completing arrangements for the opening of a new laundry. A new building will be erected on East Washington street, and Mr. Coleberg will be put in charge of the plant.

FELL FROM A TRAIN.—Juan Joaquin, a Maricopa Indian, while drunk Sunday morning, tried to get on a M. & P. train and was thrown heavily to the ground. His right arm was broken and he was taken to the county jail, where a physician reset the fracture.

TO A SMALL AUDIENCE.—The smallest audience that has attended a band concert here during the past seven months, listened to the Pioneer band concert program Sunday afternoon. Probably a hundred people congregated about the plaza and shivered to the time of several excellent numbers.

CARNIVAL ADVERTISING.—If the Phoenix carnival is the success that it promises to be, the territorial and California press will deserve a very large share of the credit. The Los Angeles Gallies are devoting much space to the carnival, and the Arizona papers are booming it in a manner that deserves much praise.

RETURNED TO PHOENIX.—Miss Esther Howe, of Bradford, Pa., arrived yesterday, and is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Howes, of the Sims addition. Miss Howe has spent the last two years in Phoenix, and has been prominent in local social circles. She was accompanied to this city by Miss Sophie Lavins, who will spend the winter here, the guest of Miss Howes.

BICYCLE PARADE.—The committee in charge of the illuminated bicycle parade, which is to take place on Tuesday night of carnival week, announces that three prizes of $20, $10 and $5, respectively, will be given for the most uniquely dressed and illuminated wheels. Prizes are open to all natives. Those desiring to enter are requested to hand in their names to the secretary of the bicycle club.

HEAVY RAINS IN THE NORTH.—A telephone message from Prescott late last night, stated that a heavy rain had been falling there, with no intermission, since Friday evening. Mail Agent Lackland, running on the S. P. P. and P. road, said Sunday morning that the rains extended clear up to Ash Fork and far to the east and west. At Flagstaff there was a light fall of snow.

INDIANS TRAIN HARD.—The Indian School football eleven is rounding into excellent shape for its Thanksgiving day game here, with the University of Arizona. The Indians have developed great improvement, particularly in their defensive work and in offensive play will be able to present a much better game than they offered to the Normal eleven in the last game. In punting and in end running, there has been much hard practice, and its results are apparent in the improvement displayed in these important factors of the game.

MINISTERS TO MEET.—The Ministerial association of this city will hold its monthly meeting this afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. The Rev. C. V. Cowan, pastor of the Methodist church, will deliver an address upon the subject of "Preachers and Churches in Politics," upon which he delivered a sermon recently. There will be an open discussion by all the ministers present. An invitation has been extended to all who care to hear the discussion.

A SUNDAY CONCERT.—An innovation was introduced into Phoenix yesterday afternoon by the Georgia minstrels—a Sunday minstrel performance. The dancing was, of course, cut

Because purely vegetable—yet thorough, prompt, healthful, satisfactory—out of it, and was replaced by songs more or less nearly approaching a sacred character. The interlocutor and the end men shortened their parts. There were several specialties, excellently well done, slack wire work, roller skating and drills. The music, though, was the dominating feature of the performance, which was therefore more properly called a sacred concert than a minstrel show. The most and the least that can be said of it was that everybody was pleased with it.

NO INTEREST IN BASEBALL.—Baseball in Tucson seems to be as dormant as in Phoenix. With as good a team as the town has ever had, the management has been scarcely able to make expenses. Baseball seasons are always streaked, running poor in seasons of plenty and blossoming but astonishingly in times of hard financial straits. There is a chance of having a game there with the Phoenix team on Thanksgiving day, and with the Phoenix team at the carnival. Tucson is rated usually as a good baseball town, but this year there seems to be an utter lack of enthusiasm on the part of the public.
